

Introducing the EVGA DIY Configurator

- Friday, June 16, 2017 – EVGA DIY Configurator provides a simple and convenient solution to purchase key components for your next system build. The Configurator eliminates the need to hunt for deals for your favorite EVGA parts and to track multiple packages. All components arrive at the same time, which minimizes delays. The DIY Configurator is designed for ease of use and to provide our loyal fans with bundle discounts: the more items you buy, the more you save!
